CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

05 CV 9940 (KMK)

Pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Court hereby enters its Case Management Order governing the foregoing case. This case arises from the arrest and detention of plaintiff by the New York City Police Department around the time of the Republican National Convention in New York City in late August and early September 2004 ("RNC Cases").

Defendants have stipulated to the following terms at this time to permit Plaintiff the opportunity to participate in the consolidated discovery currently underway in the related RNC Cases. In the interests of the convenience and economy of the parties, and the efficient management and oversight of the Court's docket, the Court hereby enters this order.

The Court is advised that the parties do not consent to trial of this case by magistrate judge. The parties are to conduct discovery in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of the Southern District of New York. All motions and applications shall be governed by the Court's Individual Practices, including pre-motion conference requirements. This order may be modified only by agreement of the parties, subject to the Court's approval, or upon a showing of good cause.

DATE DUE

PLEADINGS & DISCOVERY

7/17/06	The parties shall make their Rule 26 initial disclosures.
8/15/06	Plaintiffs shall have served any amended complaint adding claims or joining parties. No further amendment to the complaint shall be permitted without leave of court.
9/1/06	All written discovery, including document requests and interrogatories, shall have been served, except as provided below.
12/1/06	All depositions of fact witnesses shall have been noticed. With respect to both fact and expert witnesses, unless the noticing party assents, depositions of particular witnesses are not to be held until the party producing the witness has responded to any outstanding interrogatories and requests for documents pertaining to that witness. Once a party has completed the deposition of a witness, that party shall not later seek to re-depose that witness absent good cause.
3/1/07	All fact discovery shall have been completed.
4/1/07	Plaintiffs and defendants shall identify their respective expert witnesses for trial and provide the disclosures contemplated by the federal rules.
4/1/07	All contention interrogatories and requests to admit shall be served.
5/1/07	All responses due to contention interrogatories and requests to admit.
6/1/07	Depositions of plaintiff's and defendants' trial experts shall be completed.
8/1/07	All counsel must meet for at least one hour to discuss settlement no later than this date.
	Counsel for the parties have discussed holding a settlement conference before a Magistrate Judge. The parties request a settlement conference before a Magistrate Judge.
	Counsel for the parties have discussed the use of the Court's Mediation Program. The parties do not request that the case be referred to the Court's Mediation Program.
	Counsel for the parties have discussed the use of a privately retained mediator. The parties do not intend to use a privately retained mediator.

DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS

9/1/07 All dispositive motions shall have been served. Pursuant to the undersigned's Individual Practices, the parties shall request a pre-motion conference in writing at least four weeks prior to this deadline.

10/1/07 Oppositions due to all dispositive motions.

11/1/07 Replies, if any, due to all dispositive motions.

Within 30 days of the Court's ruling on dispositive motions Should any part of the case remain after the Court's ruling on dispositive motions, a Pre-Trial Conference with the Court shall be held. Prior to that conference, the parties shall consult and submit to the Court a Joint Pretrial Order prepared in accordance with the Undersigned's Individual Practices and Rule 26(a)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. If this action is to be tried before a jury, proposed voir dire, jury instructions and a verdict form shall be filed with the Joint Pretrial Order. Counsel are required to meet and confer on the jury instructions and verdict form in an effort to make an agreed upon submission.

The parties have conferred and their present best estimate of the length of trial of an individual plaintiff's case is approximately 2 weeks.
